Thomas Kay and Stephen Laurence attached to reply to Henry of Plumtree. Plea: detinue. Henry in his own person complains that Thomas and Stephen on Thurs before Michaelmas 19 Richard II (23 Sept 1395) in the place called the Vault Hall (le Vouthall) took and carried off his goods and chattels of a basin with ewer and still unjustly detain. Damages: 40s. He produces suit. He seeks delivery of the chattels.

Thomas and Stephen in their own persons come and defend the force and well avow the caption of the chattels in that place and justly. They say that the mayor, bailiffs and the community of the vill of Nottingham hold the vill of the lord king from the grants of the king's progenitors at fee farm for a certain sum rendered annually to the king and his heirs at his exchequer; they say that Henry holds a messuage called the Vault Hall in the French borough of the mayor, bailiffs and community as at farm of the king by virtue of the said grants for the service of 12s. per annum rendered at the feasts of the annunciation [of the BVM] (25 Mar) and nativity of the BVM (8 Sept); the rent the mayor, bailiffs and community, and their predecessors, from time out of mind were always seised by Henry's hand and the hands of those of which state (et per manus ipsorum quorum statum) Henry has in the same by the hands of his true tenants; 6s. of the rent for the term of the nativity of the BVM preceding the day of caption were in arrears; Thomas and Stephen as bailiffs took the said chattels in the messuage to be had and held in the said form; it is not intended that any injury on their persons can be assigned on this part; they seek judgement and the return of the chattels to have been adjudged to them in this part; they gage delivery of the chattels (vadiarunt deliberacione catallorum predictorum).

Henry says that he per aliqua prealleg' ab accione sua predictam excludi non debet; he says that Thomas and Stephen charged by their avowal (per advoc' suum suppon') that Henry holds the messuage called the Vault Hall (le Vouthall) of the king by the service of 12s. which messuage together with 20 acres of land in Nottingham fields have been held of the king which land and messuage Thomas of Normanton snr sometime held for the service of 12s. of the king at the above feasts alleged by Thomas and Stephen ... to a whole service to be paid (per predictos Thomam et Stephanum alleg' ... per integrum servicium solvend'); he says that the messuage is and was in the hand ...<sup>9</sup> acres of land are and were in the hands of divers tenants ... still are; he submits (intendit) that the 20 acres of land ... rent.
