Grant by Margaret<sup>13</sup> widow of Roger Mason of Nottingham in her widowhood to William de Stokes of Nottingham of a messuage above ground and underground in Moothall Gate (le Motehallegate) between the tenement of William Spycer sometime of William Amyas on the eastern part and the tenement of Thomas Maperley sometime of Sir Hugh of Nottingham on the western part; it extends from the highway in length to the messuage of John Odyngs in which William Sylverwod now lives. Also, grant of 2 acres of land and ½ acre of arable land lying together in Lyngdale between the land of [the hospital] of St Leonard on the northern part and the land of John Waplyngton on the southern part; they abut on the headland of John Samon towards the east and at the other head on the furlong sometime of Thomas de Morwod towards the west. Warranty. Sealing. Witd: Thomas de Stanley, mayor, Roger de Tapton and Walter Stacy, bailiffs, John de Alastre, Henry de Clyfford, William de Bolton, Thomas de Holand. Nottingham, Wed after the feast of St Mathias 5 Henry IV [27 Feb 1404]. Margaret, according to custom, was examined. She says that she made the charter of her free will without anyone's pressure, and consented to the enrolment.
