School of Law
Taught Masters Students Induction Programme

Monday 24 September 2018

Welcome

B63, Law and Social Sciences Building (LAAS)
(Building 7 on the Campus Map)

10am-11.15am: Welcome and Introduction to the Masters
Professor Jeff Kenner
Co-Director of Taught Postgraduate Programmes

11.30am-12pm: The Legal Skills Programme
Mrs Susan Russell
Director of Legal Skills

12pm-12.45pm: Library Resources: Getting Started
Mr Tony Simmonds
Senior Research Librarian

1pm-2pm: Lunch
Atrium (immediately adjacent to lecture theatre B63, LASS)

2.15pm-3pm: IT Induction

3.30pm: Student Registration
David Ross Sports Village
Tuesday 25 September 2018 – 10am-4pm
or Friday 28 September – 2pm-5pm

Meetings with Personal Tutors

Location to be advised.

Allocation of personal tutors will be posted on the postgraduate noticeboard outside the reception of the School of Law, LASS. Your tutor will place a sign-up sheet on their office door for a 15 minute appointment on either Tuesday 25th or Friday 28th (see times above).

These meetings are an opportunity to discuss your module selections. Personal tutors will be able to advise on module choices.

You should also feel free to approach module convenors for the specialisms (indicated in the handbook) to discuss the style and content of the options.

If you are unsure of your module choices, you are permitted to attend the first week of seminars for modules you have not registered for if you think that you may wish to change options. Attending modules for which you are not registered in this way is referred to as ‘auditing’. You are only permitted to audit in the first week of teaching and all changes to module registration must be completed by the end of this week (Friday 5 October 2018). Changes to module registration can be made at the University Park Central Student Service Centre.

Module registration will open at 12pm, Wednesday 26 September 2018.
Wednesday 26 September 2018

Getting the Most Out of Your Seminars Workshops
D05, Teaching and Learning Building
(between Buildings 7 & 9 on the Campus Map)

These seminars run at 10am, 11am, 12pm, 2pm, 3pm, 4pm

These small-group workshops are led by doctoral students who completed their law masters at Nottingham. Attendance at a workshop will give you the opportunity to get a student perspective on what to expect in the classroom and how to get the most out of your seminars. You must sign up for these workshops – a sign-up sheet will be circulated.

A4, Law and Social Sciences Building

2pm - 3pm
Introduction to International Criminal Justice and Armed Conflict
Dr Hemi Mistry
This introductory lecture is aimed at students contemplating taking the modules in international criminal law and armed conflict.

3pm - 4pm
Introduction to International Human Rights Law
Ms Sangeeta Shah
This is an introductory lecture that will be of benefit to those students undertaking human rights subjects. Sources of international human rights law and international institutions that oversee compliance with this law will be introduced.

4pm-5pm
Introduction to the Human Rights Law Centre
Ms Agnes Flues, Manager, Human Rights Law Centre
Thursday 27 September 2018
A1, Law and Social Sciences Building

10am-11am  European Case Reading
Professor Jeff Kenner
This session (and the follow-up session on Friday) is aimed at students taking a module that considers the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union.

11am-12pm  Introduction to the English Legal System
Mrs Susan Russell
This lecture will provide an essential introduction to the structures and concepts of English law.

1pm-2pm  Finding the Right Law Online
Mr Tony Simmonds
This session will explore tools and techniques for researching law online and familiarise you with key University legal databases.

2pm-3pm  English Case Reading
Mrs Susan Russell
This session (and the follow-up session on Friday) is aimed at private commercial law students who are not familiar with English case law.

3pm-4pm  Introduction to Commercial Law
Professor Estelle Derclaye
This introductory lecture is aimed at students contemplating taking the modules in commercial law.
Friday 28 September 2018

All sessions will take place in B40, Trent Building
(Building 11 on the Campus Map)

10am -11am  Nature and Sources of Public International Law and International Law Mooting Options
Professor Dino Kritsiotis
This lecture is intended to be of benefit to those students who are not familiar with public international law and taking international law modules. Those students who are interested in participating in mooting should also attend this session.

11am-12pm  Discussion of European Case Reading
Professor Jeff Kenner

12pm-1pm  Discussion of English Case Reading
Mrs Susan Russell

2pm – 5pm  Personal Tutor meetings (if not held on Tuesday 25 September) – see the sign-up sheets on your personal tutor’s door.
Saturday 29 September 2018

LLM Group Walk of Nottingham

12pm  First LLM Walk

2pm   Second LLM Walk

For a number of years now, the induction week has ended with a walking tour of the city, to be conducted by Professor Dino Kritsiotis. Each walk will last about an hour or so, and if you plan to join us, you should make sure that you sign-up in advance and that you are outside Ye Olde Trip to Jerusalem, Brewhouse Yard, Nottingham at 12.00 (if you wish to take the first walk) or 14.00 (if you wish to take the second walk); both walks will cover an identical route. Sign-up sheets will be available for you to make clear which of the walks you wish to attend; they will be available at the School of Law Reception during the Induction Week until 4pm on Friday 28 September.

When we meet, you will be given a map of the city that will guide us on our way. The tour will take in some of the key tourist attractions (such as the statues of Robin Hood and Brian Clough), architectural highlights and culinary gems of the city—including some of its hidden treasures (if you want to know what this means, you will just have to join us!). The walk will end at the Pitcher and Piano, allowing you plenty of time to get to spend time getting to know with your fellow new students.