

University of Nottingham
UK | CHINA | MALAYSIA

Applied Linguistics as Consultancy: A Symposium and Inaugural Lecture

11th January 2018

10.30-11.00	Registration and Refreshments
11.00-11.30	Welcome address: Applied Linguistics as Consultancy Prof. Louise Mullany, Director, Linguistic Profiling for Professionals
11.30-13.00	Panel 1: Communication and Leadership at Work Chair: Prof. Louise Mullany
11.30-11.50	Professor Michael Handford, Cardiff University	Training international engineers in Japan: discourse and Discourse
11.50-12.10	Susannah Fish, OBE, QPM, Starfish Consultancy	Communication: The key to change and influence
12.10-12.30	Dr Małgorzata Chałupnik, University of Nottingham	Capturing the whole picture: A holistic approach to leadership communication
12.30-13.00	Q&A and Discussion
13.00-13.30	Lunch
13.30-15.00	Panel 2: Effective Healthcare Communication Chair: Dr Gavin Brookes
13.30-13.50	Dr Zsófia Demjén, University College London	Metaphors of voice-hearing: Understanding lived-experience and new avenues for intervention
13.50-14.10	Dr Sarah Atkins, University of Nottingham	Challenges and reciprocity in medical settings
14.10-14.30	Dr Claire Mann, University of Nottingham	'We might have a conversation once a week but the quality is very high': Research and Consultancy in Primary Care Multidisciplinary Teams
14.30-15.00	Q&A and Discussion
15.00-15.30	Poster Displays and Refreshments The Great Hall

15:30-17:00	Panel 3: The Sociolinguistics of Gender and Equality at Work Chair: Professor Sara Mills
15:30-15:50	Dr. Stephanie Schnurr, University of Warwick	Re-thinking consultancy: Addressing issues of gender and equality at work outside the workplace
15:50-16:10	Dr. Dimitra Vladimirou, University of Nottingham	Digital ethnography and linguistics as consultancy: Reflections from the language of misogyny hate crime
16:10-16:30	Professor Marion Walker, APVC, University of Nottingham	Opportunities and challenges for communicating equality, diversity & inclusion in HE
16:30-17:00	Q&A and Discussion
17:00-17:50	Buffet, reception and CPD launch Launch speech by Professor Josephine Guy The Great Hall
18:00-19:00	Inaugural Lecture: Professor Louise Mullany Sociolinguistic Futures: Identity, Equality and Human Rights at Work
19:00-20:00	Wine Reception, light refreshments and close	