

Towards a Global, Sustainable Future
Monday 2nd September 2019
Senate Chamber
University Park Campus, University of Nottingham, UK

Time	Activity & title	Speakers & affiliations
09:30-10:00	Registration
10:00-10:15	Welcome and Opening Address	AHRC Language, Gender and Leadership team: Prof Louise Mullany, Dr. Masibo Lumala, Ms Rita Atukwasa, Dr. Roshni Mooneeram
10:15-11:15	Plenary Speaker: HeForShe: Solving the Gender Equality Puzzle	Mr Simon Gallow UN Women UK Chair: Dr Masibo Lumala
11:15-11:30	Mid-morning break
11:30-12:15	Communicating transformational leadership for sustainability	Ms Rita Atukwasa – Institute for Social Transformation, Uganda
11:45-12:45	Challenges of implementing anti-FGM laws in Kenyan Communities	Dr Stella Chebii, Moi University, Kenya

12:45-13:30	Lunch break, posters
13:30-14:30	Plenary Speaker: Eradicating FGM: Stories of success, challenges for future	Ms Valentine Nkoyo, Director, Mojatu Foundation
14:30-15:00	Inclusion Matters: Challenging discrimination and bias, change makers and reverse mentoring in organisations	EPSRC STEMM Change Team, University of Nottingham
15:00-15:15	Afternoon break
15:15-16:00	Working in politics, working in NGOs: A narrative experience	Ms Regina Grace Akullu - Institute for Social Transformation, Uganda
16:00-16:45	Eradicating gender-based violence: The case of misogyny hate crime	Ms Charlotte Fischer, Citizens UK, & the Misogyny Hate Crime Team
17:15 onward	Networking and evening reception

Tuesday 3rd September 2019
Senate Chamber
University Park Campus, University of Nottingham, UK

09:00-10:00	Plenary Session: The rocky path to sustainable freedom: Narrating slavery, defending rights, defining freedoms	Prof Laura Murphy, Loyola University, USA and Sheffield Hallam University, UK Chair: Professor Louise Mullany
10:00-10:45	Girls Not Brides; Communicating global challenges limiting girls from achieving their full potential	Ms Hope Nankunda, Raising Teenagers-Uganda & Girls Not Brides
10:45-11:00	Mid-morning break
11:00-12:20	Panel: Entrepreneurship, International Development and higher education Gender and personal authenticity in business My Business, My Way: Toolkits and Workshops: A Programme to Support Female Entrepreneurs Enactus: Developing entrepreneurial leaders and innovators SPHEIR: Transforming Pharmacy and Chemistry: Gender and equality for women in science in Kenya	Chair: Dr Lucy Jones Ms Tabitha Wacera CEO, Sustainable Water Dr. Isobel O'Neil, Nottingham University Business School Professor David Park, Enactus and Nottingham University Business School; Annie Clayton, President, Enactus, Natasha Bonner, International Relations, Enactus Professor Simon McGrath, UNESCO Chair in International Education and Development

		Dr. Jalpa Ruparelia, Educational Developer, SPHEIR
12:20-13:00	Lunch break, posters
13:00-13:45	From Banking to Farming: A narrative experience	Ms Hardlyne Lusui, Director, Consolidated Bank of Kenya Ltd
13:45-15:05	Panel session: Public Health, human rights and forced marriage 'I cannot know that now I have cancer!' A Structural Violence Perspective on Breast Cancer Detection in Uganda The power of storytelling: Case studies from the Rights Lab The politics of forced marriage	Chair: Dr Roshni Mooneeram Dr. Linda Gibson, and Deborah Ikhile Nottingham Trent University Dr. Andrea Nicholson The Rights Lab, University of Nottingham Dr Helen McCabe, School of Politics, University of Nottingham
15:05-15:30	Afternoon break
15:30-16:30	Narrative showcase, Next steps, future plans	Dr. Roshni Mooneeram, Dr. Masibo Lumala, Ms Rita Atukwasa, and Prof Louise Mullany
16:30-17:00	Closing Ceremony and Certificate Presentations	