

UCN /T/1/2/4 Students' Testimonials Volume, Teachers' Training Department [1926-1929]

DocRef	Surname	Forename	Dates at College	Academic Subjects	Professional Subjects	Specialisation in Principles of Teaching	Examinations passed	Reference	Date of reference	Any other comments
UCN /T/1/2/4	Avery	A.J.L.	1923-1926	BA (London) Honours Mathematics	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Mathematics & Science	BA (Honours) 1st Class	A most intelligent and alert student and teacher. Keenly interested, very hard working one of the most effective teachers of his year. We recommend him with very great confidence for posts in Central or Secondary schools.	29 Apr. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Naisbitt	E.W	1923-1926	BSc Physics	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Science & Mathematics	BSc (London) Honours Physics 3rd Class	A very earnest teacher with a bright attractive manner; very thoughtful and showing a real love of his work. He has been specially successful in ordering the laboratory work and individual study of older boys. He obtained the highest college mark for efficiency in Practical Teaching and is strongly recommended for posts in Central or Secondary schools.	29 Apr. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Morton	W.H.	1923-1926	Bsc (London) Honours Physics	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Science	BSc (Lond) Honours Physics 3rd Class	A very well read student of considerable culture, a most attractive personality, capable of stimulating a great amount of interest in his pupils. He gives promise of becoming a really valuable teacher, who would probably do his best work in a secondary school.	29 Apr. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Edwards	K.H.	1923-1926	BSc (Lond) General	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Geography		He is a most careful hardworking teacher with a good grip of principles and the technique of teaching. He obtained the highest college mark at the inspection by HMI and is confidently recommended as a teacher of much present usefulness and great promise for the future.	29 Apr. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Jewels	E.N.	1923-1926	BA Honours History	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	History, English, Art and Physical Training		Mr Jewels is one of the very best teachers this college has turned out. He obtained the highest mark teaching approved by HMI. He is full of enthusiasm for his work, an excellent teacher of of the subjects specially mentioned above and a very good all round sportsman. We recommend him with all confidence and pleasure.	10 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Weightman	William	1923-1926	BA (London) Pass Latin, English, History & Mathematics	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation			Mr Weightman is hardworking and keenly interested in his work. He has a bright manner and boys work pleasantly with him. He is a good sportsman and gives promise of becoming a really useful teacher.	10 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Watson	A	1924-1926	BSc General (Chemistry Physics & Pure Mathematics)	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Watson has satisfactorily fulfilled the requirements of this college and the board of education during the two years training and should prove a useful teacher	11 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hickson	Stanley	1924-26	Board of Education advanced courses in Botany and Art	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Art, English, Nature study		Mr Hickson is a most enthusiastic and intelligent teacher. His interests are very wide and his knowledge of the subject matter of school work very full. He obtained the highest college mark from HMI and is recommended with complete confidence as a teacher of great merit and promise who might "specialise" with much success.	18 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Kemp	C.E.	1924-1926	Board of Education advanced courses in Art, Music and History	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	History, Geography, Drawing, Music		Mr Kemp is a very earnest, thoughtful and hardworking student and teacher. He has made excellent use of the opportunities presented by his training course and is a very reliable and successful teacher. We have the greatest confidence in recommending him for elementary or central school work. He gives promise of becoming a good "specialist" teacher	18 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Astle	W.C.	1924-6	BA (London) Honours English	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	English		Mr Astle is an intelligent and very reliable teacher who gives much thought to the preparation of lessons and is well equipped in knowledge of the subject matter. He obtained a high mark from HMI as a teacher of present usefulness and future promise.	18 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Wills	Henry	1923-25	Intermediate BA First year course for final BA (London)	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Wills was a most diligent student who earnestly strove to make the most of the opportunities presented by the training course. He is very interested in teaching and spares no pains in preparation of lessons. His work in the schools showed continuous improvement and he promises to become a very useful teacher.	27 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Williamson	T.R.	1923-25	Intermediate BA First year course for BA (Honours) History	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work	Inter BA and Board of Education Certificate	Mr Williamson is a very earnest and hardworking student and teacher. His work in the schools showed continuous and gratifying progress and he promises to become as useful as he is now reliable and conscientious.	28 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Connell	J.R.	1924-26	Intermediate BSc First year course for final BSc	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Connell has a bright attractive manner and manages a class pleasantly. His work in the practising schools showed a gradual improvement and he promises to become a really useful teacher. He is thoroughly in earnest and very hardworking	31 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hood	Eric	1923-26	BA Honours (London) History	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	History & Mathematics	BA Honours History	Mr Hood has a very attractive and stimulating manner with boys, manages them and orders their studies with ease and efficiency. He is very keen on teaching and shows good judgement in preparation of lessons. He obtained the highest college mark at the inspection of HMI and is recommended with great confidence for appointment in a central or secondary school	31 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Egglisshaw	J.J.	1923-25	Intermediate BSc First year course for Bsc Honours Mathematics	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Egglisshaw made very gratifying progress in teaching while at college. He was extremely keen on his work, improved continuously and obtained a very good mark. He gives promise of becoming a very efficient teacher and is recommended with much confidence	1 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Shell	J.R.W.	1923-26	BA Honours French (London)	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work	BA (Honours) 3rd Class	Mr Shell was a three year student who was occupied in the first two years of training in academic studies, and in the last year was wholly concerned with theory and practice of education. He made steady progress in the preparation of lessons and gives promise of becoming an efficient teacher	1 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Jex	Carl	1922-24	Final BSc Physics & Pass BSc Mathematics	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Science & Mathematics	BSc (Honours) 1st Class Board of Education Teacher's Certificate	Mr Jex is an earnest careful teacher whose preparation of lessons and choice of method showed a high level of intelligence and efficiency. He has a pleasant quiet manner. We have great confidence in recommending him posts in either central or secondary schools	4 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Fryer	Sidney	1922-25	Inter Arts 1923. Final BA Honours French with pass in Latin	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Teaching of English	Board of Education Certificate 1924, Third year Advanced Course: Awarded special mark of credit 1925	Mr Fryer is a very keen, hardworking and intelligent student and teacher. He made continuous and gratifying progress throughout his period of training and gives promise of becoming a very successful teacher.	4 May 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Peake	G.H.	1923-26	Intermediate BSc 1924. Final BSc General 1926	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Science, Mathematics & Music	Board of Education Certificate 1925	Mr Peake is a good natural teacher. He is a very capable class manager and his preparation of lessons has been intelligent. At the moment he is a very reliable and effective teacher and should do good work in the higher branches of primary or in secondary education.	8 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Cox	E	1924-26	Board of Education (College alternative examination) Geography, Mathematics, English, Hygiene, Physical Training, Music, Art	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Cox is a most careful and diligent student and teacher. He showed great interest on the theory and practice of teaching. He is hardworking and thoroughly reliable and obtained a very good mark at the inspection of HMI.	8 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Marwood	H	1924-26	Board of Education Course, History, English & Mathematics	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Marwood is a most careful, thoughtful and conscientious student and teacher. He has shown the greatest interest and much intelligence in planning and preparing courses of lessons for boys. He is very reliable and promises to become a teacher of great usefulness and some resource.	8 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Tillett	J	1923-26	Final Course BA (Honours) English, Subsidiary Subject: French	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Teaching of English	Board of Education Certificate 1925	Mr Tillett is a student of marked ability and a teacher of outstanding merit. He obtained the highest mark for teaching when examined by HMI and is recommended with confidence for work in either central or secondary schools.	25 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	McIntyre	D	1924-26	Inter BSc (London) 1924, First year course for final Bsc, Advanced Drawing (Board of Education)	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Science, Mathematics, Drawing		Mr McIntyre is a very thoughtful student of outstanding ability. He is a very keen and capable teacher, hardworking and thoroughly reliable. We confidently recommend him for posts in either Central or Secondary schools.	29 Jun. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hind	K.F.	1924-1926	Board of Education Certificate Course including Advanced Geography	General principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Geography		Mr Hind is an earnest hardworking student and is keenly interested in teaching. His work in schools was very conscientious and he produces positive results. He shows promise of becoming a very efficient teacher.	29 Jun. 1926

UCN /T/1/2/4	Scoffin	John	1924-26	Board of Education Course: English, Advanced History, Advanced Geography, Music & Drawing	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Scoffin is a very intelligent student and showed much interest in all his work. His preparation of lessons was very thorough, he is hardworking and anxious to improve. He promises to become quite a satisfactory teacher.	2 Jul. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Sharp	A.O.C	1924-26	Final BSc (Lond) General Chemistry, Pure Mathematics & Applied Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work		Mr Sharp is thoroughly in earnest and shows a great interest in teaching. All his work during training has been most satisfactory. He is a very efficient teacher and is recommended with great confidence.	2 Jul. 1926
UCN /T/1/2/4	Noon	F.L.	1924-27	BSc Honours Geography, Subsidiary Subject: Geology	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Geography	Board's Examination in Education & BSc	Mr Noon is a careful and very diligent student and teacher who spares no pains in the preparation of lessons. He is thoroughly interested in teaching, controls a class effectively and always produces positive results.	15 Feb. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hickson	A	1924-26	Intermediate BSc 1925 Geography, Geology, Mathematics, Chemistry BSc (Honours) Geography, Subsidiary subject: Geology	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General form work	Intermediate BSc Board of Education certificate	Mr Hickson's work at college was seriously interfered with by ill health following an accident, but towards the end of his training he gave promise of considerable ability to plan work for his pupils and to carry out these plans in the classroom with useful effect.	15 Feb. 1927	Private student
UCN /T/1/2/4	Bingham	Stanley	1924-27	Intermediate Science 1926 offering general BSc and Pure and Applied Mathematics & Physics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Science, Mathematics and Drawing	Intermediate science 1926, Board of Education certificate 1926 (two year course)	A very diligent and trustworthy student, showing the greatest interest in all educational matters and in teaching practice. He is recommended with great confidence as a teacher of much present usefulness and future promise.	22 Feb. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Sharp	L.A.	1924-27	Intermediate Science 1925, BSc (General) 1927	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	General subjects	Intermediate Science (London) Board of Education certificate	A very diligent student with a most pleasant manner. Intelligent and very keen on teaching, Mr Sharp is confidently recommended as a very efficient teacher of much promise.	15 Mar. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Stevenson	C.W	1924-27	BSc (London) Honours Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Practical Physical Training, Theory of Music and Drawing	Mathematics		Mr Stevenson has proved himself a first class student and a thoroughly earnest hardworking and intelligent teacher. He is keenly interested in methods of teaching, plans lessons with great care and always produces good positive results. We confidently recommend him for posts in either Secondary or Primary schools.	12 May 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Woolley	S.F	1924-27	BA (London) Honours History	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	History and English	BA (London) Honours History	Mr Woolley only just missed the distinction of 1st Class Honours in the degree exam and is undoubtedly a man of superior intellectual power and attainment. His work in teaching has been marked by real progress. At the moment he manages a class and orders the work quite effectively and we feel that another year's experience in responsible teaching will make him a good teacher.	12 May 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Marsh	M	1924-27	Bsc (London) Honours Chemistry, Subsidiary Subject: Pure Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing and music	Science	Cambridge Teacher's Diploma	Mr Marsh is a student of exceptional intellectual power and attainments. He is most interesting in teaching - fresh and intelligent in method, very pleasant, hardworking and effective in the classroom. We recommend him with great confidence for posts in secondary or primary schools.	21 May 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hague	A.W.	1924-27	BA (London) Honours French, Subsidiary Subject: Latin	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	French	Board of Education Certificate & Subsidiary Latin	Mr Hague has shown the keenest interest in all his work and taken a very prominent part in the organisation of other activities of the students life in college. As a teacher is a good disciplinarian, very intelligent in method and thoroughly reliable and efficient in all his work. We recommend him with the greatest confidence for posts in Primary, Central or Secondary schools	27 May 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Burnham	E.A.	1924-27	BA(London) Honours Classics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	English	Board of Education certificate	Mr Burnham is a man of quite outstanding intelligence and ability and a really good student. As teacher he has shown the greatest interest in his work. He is hardworking, bright and stimulating in the classroom and is recommended for posts in Primary, Central or Secondary schools	27 May 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Brown	W.B.	1924-27	BSc(London) Honours Chemistry, Subsidiary Subject: Physics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	Science and Mathematics	Pass in Subsidiary Physics, exempt from Chemistry in the general degree exam	Mr Brown is a most careful thoughtful and hardworking teacher. He has shown the greatest interest in his work and has made constant progress during his three years training. He is at the moment quite a useful teacher and gives promise of attaining a very high level of efficiency and usefulness.	23 Jun. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Jones	W.T.	1923-5 & 1926-7	BSc Honours Physics, Subsidiary Subject: Pure Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	Physics	Bsc (Honours) 1st Class	Mr Jones is undoubtedly a man of superior intellectual power and attainments. He has shown the keenest interest in the theory and practice of education and applies his knowledge with intelligence to the planning and carrying out of lessons. He gives promise of becoming a very thoughtful and useful teacher.	29 Jun. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hornsby	J	1925-27	Intermediate Arts 1st year course, Board of Education exam.	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	General subjects with emphasis on Geography		Mr Hornsby is a thoroughly earnest student, thoughtful and trustworthy. He plans lessons with great care and occasionally with some originality in method. With more experience he should become quite a sound and intelligent teacher.	29 Jun. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Taylor	J.E.	1925-27	Board of Education Course, English, Mathematics and Advanced Geography	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	General subjects with emphasis on Geography and English		Mr Taylor has shown great interest in all his work during training and has continuously improved both in regard to intellectual and practical efficiency as a teacher. He is at present a very reliable teacher and gives promise of rapidly increasing usefulness.	30 Jun. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Crawford	A.R.	1924-27	BSc (Honours) Chemistry, Subsidiary Subject: Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	Mathematics and Science	Bsc (Honours) 2nd Class	Mr Crawford has shown himself a student of superior intelligence, earnest, hardworking and thoroughly trustworthy. He has been very keenly interested in methods of teaching. He manages a class very pleasantly and profitably to the pupils. We recommend him as a teacher of much present usefulness and future promise.	30 Jun. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Dowse	A.H.	1925-27	Board of Education Certificate, English, Mathematics and Advanced Geography	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	General subjects with emphasis on Geography and English		Mr Dowse has proved himself a diligent and intelligent student and teacher. He has approached his work with a keen desire to improve and has made good progress towards becoming a really thoughtful and effective teacher.	30 Jun. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Elton	W.H.	1924-27	BSc General (London) Physics and Pure and Applied Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	Science	Bsc (Honours) General	Mr Elton has displayed keenness and has made steady progress throughout his college course. He is interested in teaching and willing and competent to take part in the social and athletic life of a school. In Physical Training & games he has specially distinguished himself and he could be trusted to take charge of this important part of school work. We are of opinion that he will prove a satisfactory member of a school staff.	5 Jul. 1927
UCN /T/1/2/4	Grimley	W.B.	1925-7	London Intermediate Arts, History, Mathematics, French and Latin; BA First Year Course, History (Honours)	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	Teaching all subjects of primary grade	Intermediate BA, Board of Education Certificate	Mr Grimley showed great interest in the study and practice of education. He is earnest, hardworking and intelligent in the preparation and conduct of a lesson. He promises to become a very useful member of a school staff. During the current year he has studied for Honours History (BA) as a private student.	1 Mar. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Butler	J.S	1926-28	Board of Education Course, Advanced English, Advanced Geography, History, Music and Art	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Geography, English, Physical Training		Mr Butler is a man of high moral character keenly interested in all phases of school life, thoroughly dependable, giving promise of becoming a teacher of the highest grade. He obtained the highest mark for teaching at the Board of Education inspection and is recommended with the greatest confidence for work in primary and central schools.	24 Apr. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Clark	A.E.	1925-27	Board of Education Two Year Course, English, History and Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	English and Mathematics	Board of Education Certificate	Mr Clark was a student of exceptional ability standing out intellectually as one of the best men of his year. He showed the greatest keenness in teaching, made excellent progress and promises to become in the near future a teacher of the highest grade. We recommend him with great confidence.	24 Apr. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Foister	J.A.	1925-27	Intermediate BSc (London) Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, Physics and Geography	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	Drawing, Mathematics and Geography	Board of Education Certificate with Distinction in Advanced Drawing; Intermediate Science (London) 1926	Mr Foister showed the greatest interest in all his work but was particularly alive and keen in all matters connected with the practice of his profession. His preparation for work in the schools was thorough, intelligent and frequently original in regard to choice of method and illustration. Before the class he is alert, resourceful and efficient and is recommended with much confidence.	30 Mar. 1928

UCN /T/1/2/4	Williamson	E.C.	1925-27	Intermediate Science (London) Pure and Applied Mathematics, Physics and Geography	General Principles of education Mathematics Geography and Science Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	Board of Education Certificate 1927; Intermediate Science (London) 1926	Mr Williamson has shown himself to be a very diligent and capable student and keenly interested in the theory and practice of teaching. He has displayed considerable intelligence in preparation of lessons and acumen in choice of method. Before the class he is bright and energetic and manages a class well with positive gain to his pupils.	30 Apr. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Horsley	V	1926-8	Board of Education Course, Geography, Mathematics and English	General Principles of education General Form work Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	Board of Education Certificate 1927	Mr Horsley is a most earnest and painstaking student and teacher. He has displayed the keenest interest in all his work and made sure progress all the way. He prepares and plans his lessons with the greatest care and thoroughness. In the classroom he is hardworking and always aims at calling forth a maximum of effort from his pupils. Mr Horsley will probably give his whole life up to his work and promises to become a very useful teacher.	30 Apr. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Bailey	J.W	1925-27	Intermediate Science (London) Mathematics, Botany, Geography & Geology; Final BSc (Honours) Botany, Subsidiary Subject Geography	General Principles of education Geography and Drawing Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Advanced Drawing	Board of Education Certificate with Distinction in Drawing	Mr Bailey is man of most pleasing address of high moral character, a diligent and capable student. His work in teaching gave evidence of careful thought and intelligent method and boys work willingly and pleasantly with him producing very good results. We recommend Mr Bailey with the greatest confidence.	27 Apr. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Calvert	R	1925-28	BSc General (London) Physics, Mathematics and Pure Mathematics	General Principles of education Science and Mathematics Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	Pass Bsc General (London)	Mr Calvert has a bright, energetic, earnest manner, is very keen on teaching being interested in all phases of the boy's life both in and out of school. His preparation of lessons shows intelligence and an appreciation of the means by which real positive results are obtained. He is at present an efficient teacher and gives promise of great usefulness in his preparation.	27 Apr. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Bandy	F.G.	1924-27	Bsc General (London) Chemistry, Physics and Pure Mathematics	General Principles of education Physics and Physical Training Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Bsc General (Honours) 2nd Class; Board of Education Certificate	Mr Bandy is teacher of much promise. He gave evidence of great interest in his work particularly in the teaching of Science. He was energetic and stimulated his classes. He was a good disciplinarian and was always on the best of terms with his pupils. Mr Bandy is an enthusiastic musician and possesses a good singing voice. He has a pleasing and strong personality and would prove a most agreeable colleague. We are sure that his work gives satisfaction to all concerned and we recommend him with confidence.	1 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Jackson	Henry	1926-28	Board of Education Course, English, Geography and Mathematics	General Principles of education General form work Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music		Mr Jackson showed a keen interest in all matters connected with his training. He has a firm brisk manner and controls a class very efficiently. In preparation of lessons he exercises much thought and gives much time to provision of illustrations. Mr Jackson has made steady progress and gives promise of becoming a very useful member of a school staff.	2 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Greensmith	G	1925-27	Board of Education Course, Geography, Mathematics and English	General Principles of education General form work Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	Board of Education certificate with distinction in Advanced Geography and credit in Mathematics	Mr Greensmith is a very diligent student and has shown great interest in all his studies. His preparation of lessons has been thorough and his notes give indication of careful thought in selection of matter and choice of method. He is very earnest, hardworking, and thoroughly dependable and will without doubt become a very useful and intelligent teacher.	2 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Budworth	R.H	1925-28	BA (Honours) London, French with Subsidiary Subject Latin	General Principles of education French, Latin and English Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	BA (Honours) London 2nd Class 1927	Mr Budworth has had considerable experience during his year's training in secondary and central schools specialising in French Latin and English. His work in the schools has been uniformly successful and has reached a high level of efficiency. Mr Budworth has a cultured manner and outlook and is recommended with the greatest confidence for posts in secondary or central schools.	2 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Holmes	A.S.	1925-28	BSc (Honours) London, Honours Physics with Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education Physics and Mathematics Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	BSc (Honours) Physics 1st Class	During his year of training Mr Holmes has had much practice in the teaching of Physics & Mathematics in a secondary school, on one occasion taking full charge of the Physics for various forms for a week. He has also had practice in central school work. His manner is bright and attractive yet compelling on occasion. He enlists the ready and earnest co-operation of boys of all ages producing sure and valuable results. Mr Holmes received the highest College-Teaching-mark and is recommended with every confidence for secondary and central schools.	7 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Palmer	G.H.	1925-28	BSc (Honours) London, Honours Physics, Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education Physics and Mathematics Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Bsc (Honours) Physics 1st Class	Mr Palmer has had much practice in the teaching of Physics and Mathematics in a Secondary School and in general form work in Central Schools. He is very earnest and thorough in preparation and in the classroom, planning lessons with much intelligence, giving sure evidence of complete grip of subject matter and of sound methods of teaching. Mr Palmer obtained a high mark at the Board of Education's inspection of teaching and is recommended with great confidence for posts in secondary and central schools.	8 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Elwick	J	1925-28	BSc (Honours) London, Honours Physics with Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Bsc (Honours) Physics 2nd Class	Mr Elwick is a most earnest and intelligent student and has shown the keenest interest on all departments of his training course. In preparation of lessons he is very thorough and his notes and presentation are most orderly and systematic. He has had experience in Secondary and Central schools and gives promise of becoming a very efficient and useful member of a school staff.	15 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Whitehall	H	1924-25 & 1927	BSc (Honours) Lond, Honours English with Subsidiary Subject German	General Principles of education English and German Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	BA (Honours) 2nd Class	[No Comments]
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hill	W.N	1927-28	BSc (London) General	General Principles of education Geography & Science Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing		Mr Hill made very good progress in his year of training. He taught during twelve weeks in Central schools and gave much satisfaction to the Head Teachers. He has a quiet but firm manner, manages a class well; presents carefully prepared lessons with positive benefit to his pupils. We recommend him with much confidence for posts in Central and Primary schools.	7 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Winterton	A.P	1926-28	Board of Education Certificate, Advanced Geography, Advanced English and Advanced Mathematics Intermediate Science (London)	General Principles of education Mathematics Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing		Mr Winterton is a student of outstanding ability and intelligence. His work in education has always been characterised by the greatest interest and keenness and he is capable of much cogent thought which gives sureness of grip of principles and some originality in actual practice. He manages a class well and produces real and valuable results. He is recommended for Primary or Central schools with much confidence.	15 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Chamber	Fred	1926-28	Board of Education Certificate, Mathematics Geography and English	General Principles of education Geography and Arithmetic Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing		Mr Chambers is a very diligent and careful student, hardworking and trustworthy. His work in teaching has been characterised by the greatest keenness, his preparation of lessons has been thorough and thoughtful. He has made good progress throughout his training, his knowledge and grip of method and power to handle a class are rapidly developing and he gives promise of becoming an efficient and useful teacher.	16 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Tennant	J.L	1927-28	BA (Honours) English with Subsidiary Subject Latin	General Principles of education English, French and History Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	BA (Honours) 3rd Class	Mr Tennant has had much practice during his year's training in secondary and central schools and has given evidence of considerable natural aptitude for teaching. He is a man of strong character with a cultivated manner and outlook. His work in the classroom is very effective and we recommend him with every confidence for posts in Secondary or Central schools.	10 May 1928

UCN /T/1/2/4	Allan	John	1925-28	Intermediate BA (London) History, English, Latin and Mathematics BA in Honours History	General Principles of education History and English Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	Board of Education Certificate 1927	Mr Allan is a man of high moral character, very attractive in manner, possessed of a very pleasing deep voice, cultured in manner and address. He has shown the greatest keenness in all his work. As a teacher he has prepared his work with greatest care showing much thought and intelligence both in selection of the material of lessons and in choice of method. In the classroom he is sure and effective showing much resource. Mr Allan received the highest mark for teaching at the inspection by the Board and is recommended with the greatest confidence.	10 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Smith	L.H	1926-28	Board of Education Certificate, History, English and Mathematics	General Principles of education General form work Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing		Mr Smith had had experience both as student teacher and as uncertificated teacher before coming to college and at once showed his ability to control a class and to order the routine of classwork. During training he has shown outstanding intelligence and interest in education principles and methods, is much surer in aim and in the technique of teaching. He has an attractive and stimulating manner and should become a very efficient and useful teacher.	24 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Wright	J.A	1926-28	Board of Education Certificate Course, English Geography and History	General Principles of education English and Music Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing		Mr Wright is a man of sound moral character and has exerted an excellent influence on his fellow students. He has shown the greatest interest in all his work, is a very diligent student and a very thorough and conscientious teacher. Mr Wright has made very sure progress in his understanding of the principles of education and in the art of teaching. We recommend him as an efficient teacher and useful member of any school staff.	21 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Dennis	L	1925-28	BA (London) Geography with Subsidiary Subject History	General Principles of education Geography Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	Board of Education Certificate 1927 with credit in Practice and Principles of Teaching	Mr Dennis is a man of high moral character and has proved himself a most intelligent and diligent student. He has shown the greatest possible interest in his preparation of lessons, sparing no pains in his attempt to achieve the greatest benefit for his pupils. His "practice" has been carried out in central and primary schools where he has given great satisfaction. His teaching mark is 'A' and we recommend him with every confidence as a most desirable member of a school staff.	21 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hillam	H.E.	1925-28	Intermediate BSc (London) Chemistry, Physics, Geography and Mathematics. Final BSc Geography (Special) with Subsidiary Subject Physics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing (passed with credit)	Board of Education Certificate	Mr Hillam has shown himself to be a very keen and diligent student and has made continuous progress throughout his three years of training. In the classroom he is hardworking, animated and vigilant and secures the willing cooperation of his pupils in lessons which are intelligently planned. He will undoubtedly prove a very useful teacher.	23 Jun. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Whilde	N.E	1924-26	Intermediate Science (London) Pure and Applied Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry. Bsc (1st year course) Physics (special) with Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education General form work Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Board of Education Certificate, Intermediate Science 1924	Mr Whilde showed the greatest interest in all his work and proved himself a very diligent and intelligent student. His preparation of lessons was thoughtful and very thorough. In the classroom he was hardworking and showed aptitude in the application of the newer modes of teaching. Throughout his training he made sure progress and gives promise of becoming an intelligent and useful teacher.	24 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Henshaw	E.J.	1925-28	Bsc (London) Chemistry (Special) with Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education Chemistry, Mathematics and Physics Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	Bsc (London) 2nd Class Honours	Mr Henshaw is very earnest, hardworking and intelligent student & teacher. He has shown the greatest interest in the study of education and proved himself a very efficient teacher. His practical teaching has been done in secondary and central schools and head teachers have spoken very highly of his ability to produce certain and positive results. We recommend Mr Henshaw with the greatest confidence as a teacher of science in secondary or higher primary schools.	24 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hempstock	C.M.	1926-28	Board of Education Certificate, Advanced Geography, Mathematics and English	General Principles of education Arithmetic and Geography Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing		Mr Hempstock has shown great interest in the principles and practice of education and great keenness in the actual work in the schools. He had experience during his training course in upper standard and central school work and gave great satisfaction to the head teachers. We recommend him with very great confidence for posts in higher primary schools.	30 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Naylor	Ernest	1927-28	Board of Education Course, Music and Hygiene	General Principles of education Music Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Board of Education Certificate	Mr Naylor's experience before coming to college made him thoroughly at home in the classroom where he orders the work of a class with decision and confidence. He was highly interested to learn new methods and showed much aptitude in applying them. He is very earnest and hardworking, a firm disciplinarian. His work is characterised by very positive results of a high order.	4 Dec. 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Rimington	J.L.	1926-28	Intermediate BSc (London) Geography, Geology, Physics and Mathematics. As a private student BSc. Special Geography, with Subsidiary Subject Geology	General Principles of education Geography Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	Intermediate Bsc and Board of Education Certificate	Mr Rimington was a very diligent and capable student. As a teacher he was very keen on the latest developments of method and spared no pains in the preparation of lessons. His work especially in the teaching of Geography showed considerable originality and numerous good illustrations (maps, pictures, paintings, models) were provided and used with good effect. He is confidently recommended as a teacher of much promise.	21 Feb. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Sharpe	J.H.	1927-29	Board of Education Course, Advanced History, Advanced Geography and English	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music, Drawing and Physical Training		Mr Sharp has approached his work with great interest and anxiety to succeed. His preparations of lessons has been very thorough and his notes have shown an intelligent grasp of the principles which underlie the best method. He has a very pleasant manner, is hardworking, and gives promise of becoming a teacher of great usefulness.	6 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Jackson	W.S.	1926-29	Bsc General (London) Science, Pure Mathematics, Applied Mathematics and Physics	General Principles of education Mathematics and Science Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and Drawing	Bsc (London)	Mr Jackson is a bright brisk firm teacher thoroughly interested and diligent in the preparation of his lessons, hardworking and stimulating in the classroom. He has given considerable satisfaction in the schools where he has carried out his training and gives promise of becoming a very reliable and efficient teacher.	6 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Riley	D.E.	1926-29	BSc General (London) Chemistry, Pure Mathematics and Applied Mathematics	General Principles of education Mathematics, Science and Physical Training Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music, Drawing and Physical Training	Bsc General (London)	Mr Riley has shown the greatest interest in all his work. He is thoughtful and diligent in preparation, thorough and intelligent in practice. He has worked well and very successfully in both central & secondary schools, giving great satisfaction to the regular class masters and principals. He is a decidedly efficient teacher and gives promise of attaining a high level of usefulness.	9 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Gascoyne	L.F.	1926-29	BSc Special (London) Special Physics with Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education Science, Mathematics, Geography and Physical Training Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music, Drawing and Physical Training	Bsc Special (London) Pass	Mr Gascoyne is a very thoughtful and intelligent student, outstandingly conscientious and thorough in his preparation of lessons, sparing no pains in the provision of illustrative matter and apparatus. He is very patient and persistent in his attempts to arouse the interest and mental activity of his pupils. He has improved all along the time of his training experience and gives promise of becoming a very intelligent and useful teacher.	9 May 1928
UCN /T/1/2/4	Cook	R.J	1926-29	BA (London) Intermediate, English, French, Latin and Pure Mathematics. Final English (Honours) with Subsidiary Subject French	General Principles of education English Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	Board of Education Certificate (2 year course)	Mr Cook has proved himself to be a very intelligent and diligent student and teacher. He has shown great interest in his work. His lessons have been prepared very thoroughly and his work in the classroom has developed strenuous and pleasurable activity on the part of his pupils. He is recommended confidently as a teacher of much promise.	23 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Harris	C.W.A.	1927-29	Board of Education, History, Pure Mathematics and English	General Principles of education General form work Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music		Mr Harris has shown the greatest interest in all his work and is especially keen on the methods of developing interest and effort on the part of his pupils. His preparation of lessons has been thoughtful and thorough and he has spared no pains in planning new modes of meeting the difficulties which have arisen in his actual lessons. He is bright, energetic and attractive to boys and, promises to become a very efficient teacher	23 May 1929

UCN /T/1/2/4	Vickers	L.G.J	1927-29	Board of Education, Elementary Science, Advanced Gardening, Advanced Geography and English	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	General form work	Mr Vickers is a most earnest and diligent student and teacher. His preparation of lessons has been thorough and his notes show much thought. In the classroom he is encouraging and stimulating, persistent and effective in questioning and developing a large measure of self activity in his pupils. He is recommended with much confidence as a thoroughly reliable and useful teacher.	23 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Banham	L.G.H	1927-29	Board of Education, English, Mathematics and Elementary Science	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and drawing	General form work	Mr Banham is a most earnest student and teacher. He has shown the greatest interest in all his work and has made great strides in the direction of that sureness and confidence which make for success in teaching. He has tackled the teaching of all subjects with considerable success using intelligent methods and developing and sustaining the cooperation of his class. He is recommended with much confidence.	23 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Stewart	A.H	1926-29	BA (London) English (Honours) with Subsidiary Subject Latin	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	English and Art	Mr Stewart has been quite the outstanding man of his year both in regard to his professional efficiency and the most distinguished part he has played in the organisation and administration of the student activities. As prefect at hostel, editor of the college magazine and president of the students union, he has done excellent work and earned the respect of both tutors and students. We recommend him with the utmost confidence and anticipate for him a career of distinguished service.	16 May 1929	Obtained an 'A' mark for teaching
UCN /T/1/2/4	Harriman	J.R.	1926-29	BA (London) French (Honours) with Subsidiary Subject Latin	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	English and French Board of Education Certificate with credit in education	Mr Harriman is a most earnest and diligent student, sound and reliable in every way. He is an excellent exponent of association football and a good cricketer. He has proved himself very helpful in all the activities of a school. As a teacher he is most diligent and thoughtful in preparation, hardworking in the classroom and easily obtains the cooperation of his pupils. Mr Harriman is strongly recommended as a teacher of much promise.	23 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Porter	W.C	1926-29	BSc Honours (London) Special Chemistry with Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Chemistry, Mathematics and Physics Bsc (London) 1st class honours	Mr Porter has proved himself a man of high and strong [standards] and has taken a leading part in all departments of college life. As a student he has shown outstanding ability and his work in the classroom has always attained a high standard of efficiency. He is clearly interested in teaching, diligent, thorough and intelligent in preparation of lessons and has considerable power to stimulate pupils. Mr Porter is strongly recommended as a teacher of great promise.	28 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Hunt	C	1926-29	BA (London) Latin, English, History and Pure Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	History and English Intermediate BA (London)	Mr Hunt is a man of high character and outstanding intelligence, very thoughtful and most diligent in all his work. He has had experience in central schools and made good progress in the art of teaching. He gives promise of becoming a thoroughly useful teacher.	6 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Jenkinson	D	1928-29	Training for Cambridge Diploma	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Physics and Mathematics	Mr Jenkinson is a thoroughly earnest and diligent student and has shown the greatest interest in his work. His preparation of lessons is thoughtful and complete, his manner attractive to boys who work well with him. He has had practice in central and secondary schools and gives promise of becoming a reliable and useful teacher.	31 May 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Kemp	R.E.C	1927-29	Intermediate Science (London) Pure Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, Chemistry and Geography, Board of Education Course, English, Advanced Geography and Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and Drawing	General form work	Mr Kemp has shown himself to be a man of strong character, a diligent student, an intelligent and industrious teacher. Keenly interested in teaching he has made sound progress throughout his course of training and may be relied on to do sound and useful work. He is recommended with confidence.	10 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Green	E	1927-29	Board of Education Certificate, Mathematics Geography and English	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and Drawing	General form work	Mr Green has shown great interest in all his work and proved himself a diligent and intelligent student and teacher. He is most careful and thorough in the preparation of lessons and hardworking in the classroom. He has made steady progress throughout his training and gives promise of becoming a reliable and useful teacher.	10 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Moxon	F	1927-29	Board of Education, English, Elementary Science and Gardening	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and Drawing	General form work	Mr Moxon is a thoroughly earnest and thoughtful student. He is hardworking and anxious to learn his job, sparing no pains in the preparation of his lessons. He has had considerable aptitude in the adoption of the moves of the more intelligent methods of teaching and gives promise of being an intelligent and efficient teacher.	10 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Cresswell	V.T.S	1927-29	Board of Education Certificate, English, Mathematics and Advanced Geography	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and Drawing	Geography	Mr Cresswell is a thoughtful and diligent student. He is keenly interested in teaching and easily calls forth the willing cooperation of his pupils, developing much self effort and fruitful mental activity. He gives promise of becoming a very successful teacher and is recommended with much confidence.	10 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Alfield	C.R.	1927-29	Board of Education Certificate, English, Mathematics and Advanced History	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music and Drawing	General form work	Mr Alfield is a man of high character with a brisk cultured manner. He has shown the greatest interest in all his work and created a very good impression on all his tutors. His preparation of lessons has been thorough and intelligent and his work in the classroom gives promise of very efficient and useful service. He is recommended with much confidence.	7 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Wakerley	S.S	1927-29	Board of Education Certificate, English, Advanced Geography, Elementary Science and Gardening	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	General form work	Mr Wakerley is a most reliable and diligent student, has made the most of all his opportunities during training and has given great satisfaction to all the head teachers and class masters at the school where he has practised. His preparation of lessons shows the greatest interest in his work and an intelligent grip of the principles and methods of teaching. He is recommended with great confidence as a teacher of present efficiency and future promise.	7 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Daniel	J.S	1927-29	Board of Education Certificate, English Geography, Gardening and Elementary Science	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	General form work	Mr Daniel has shown great interest in all his work. He is diligent and intelligent student, a hardworking and very useful teacher. His preparation of lessons has been thorough and his work in the classroom is always accompanied by earnest work on the part of his pupils. Mr Daniel is recommended with confidence as a teacher of much promise.	10 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Daykin	A	1927-29	Intermediate Arts (London) English, History, Geography and Latin. BA (Honours) English with Subsidiary Subject Latin	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Drawing	General form work Intermediate BA (London)	Mr Daykin is a thoroughly earnest and thoughtful student and has shown the keenest interest in both the principles and practice of education. In the schools he has proved himself very reliable and intelligent in the preparation of lessons, hardworking in the classroom. His work gives promise of his becoming a sound and efficient teacher.	26 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Disney	R.F	1927-29	Intermediate Bsc, Pure and Applied Mathematics, Physics and Geography. BSc Special, (Honours) Geography with Subsidiary Subject Geology	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation Music	General form work Intermediate BSc 1925	Mr Disney has shown himself to be a very intelligent and diligent student. He has shown the greatest interest in both the principles and practice of education. His work in the schools has always been characterised by a very commendable thoroughness. His preparation of lessons is very conscientious, thoughtful and sometimes affording evidence of originality. Mr Disney gives promise of becoming a very reliable and sound teacher.	26 Jun. 1929
UCN /T/1/2/4	Forster	F.M	1925-29	BSc (Honours) Physics with Subsidiary Subject Mathematics	General Principles of education Principles of Physical Education and Hygiene Educational Organisation	Physics and Mathematics Cambridge Teachers Certificate, BSc Physics 2nd Class Honours	Mr Forster has shown the greatest keenness in all his work. His preparation of lessons has been very thorough and evinces a high measure of intelligence and appreciation of the aptness and adequacy of methods of teaching. He manages a class well, secures their cooperation and stimulates them to a strenuous use of their powers. Mr Forster is thoroughly recommended as a teacher of much efficiency and promise.	8 Oct. 1929

