APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION TO PUBLISH

- Publication includes the use of copies as book or journal illustrations, book or CD covers, and for use in television, film, video, CD-Roms, web sites, posters, exhibitions, public lectures etc.
- It is illegal to publish any material in copyright without the permission of the copyright holder
- We do not hold the copyright of all material in our collections and we may ask you to prove that you have cleared copyright or made efforts to do so. Copyright holders may charge their own copyright fees.
- We may charge reproduction fees for the publication of material in our holdings. Charges may vary according to factors such as print run; nature of publication; size of image; inside or cover illustration; number of editions; number of images requested for a single publication.
- Fees are for each individual item to be reproduced
- Reproduction fees are additional to the cost of creating the copy.
- Reproduction fees may be waived or reduced for educational or charitable publications or may be waived in return for a copy of the publication to be added to the University's holdings
- All use of images of items held by the University should be appropriately credited

Please complete the form overleaf.

The form is only for request to publish. If you require copies of material in our collections, please complete a Photographic Declaration/Request form available from our Reading Room.
