

QM update to the period of appointment for external examiners

In order to reduce the impact of COVID 19 and to preserve Quality and Standards throughout this period the following amended guidelines have been approved:

For the 2020/21 session only external examiner appointments can be exceptionally extended by one year to help with continuity. During this period extensions do not require the approval of the Quality and Standards Committee (QSC).