

'Working Together to Support People with Dementia – A Forum Going Forward IV'

Conference for Home Care Staff, Wednesday 30th April 2014 Room B03,
Sir Colin Campbell Building, Nottingham University Innovation Park,
Triumph Road

FINAL Conference Programme

9.15am Arrive, register for conference, tea / coffee welcome

Chair: Assoc. Professor Rob Jones

9.50 Introduction to the day & its key themes - Welcome, housekeeping, structure of the day (Assoc. Professor Rob Jones)

10.00 What should a good homecare service for people with dementia look like?
– Briefly revisiting the Service Template (Rob Jones and Tony Kelly)

10.10 The Soundtrack to My Life Project – overview and findings from research project (John Osborne, Kate Fisher & Tony Kelly)

10.40 The Mansfield and Ashfield Intensive Recovery Intervention Service (IRIS) (Tony Wilde)

Theatre end of room B03

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 Dementia friendly cities update (Kate Fisher)

11.50 Group work – The service template

12.10 Feedback and discussion

12.30 Soundtrack to My Life Awards – staff who have successfully completed the Soundtrack training course receive their award

Syndicate end of room B03

1.00 Lunch

2.00 The use of technology in the care of people with dementia – an introduction to Mind Tech (Mike Craven)

2.20 Group work – Technology in home care

2.40 Feedback from group work and discussion

3.00 Closing remarks (Assoc. Professor Rob Jones)

Syndicate end of room B03

End of conference and afternoon tea