

A Germanic Sandwich 2015

University of Nottingham

Programme

Friday 24 April

10.00-10.45	Registration & coffee (Highfield House Cloisters)
10.45-11.00	Welcome & introduction (Highfield House A01)
	Highfield House (A01) Chair: Torsten Leuschner	Highfield House (A02) Chair: Barbara Schlücker
11.00-11.30	Another Germanic sandwich, or stuff like that? Ton van der Wouden	Existing explanations for the external possessor sandwich suffer from an English bias Freek Van de Velde
11.30-12.00	The comparative semantics of West Germanic similatives Johan Van der Auwera & Daniel Van Olmen	Possessors in Flemish and German: syntactic (in)dependency of the (external) possessor on the possessee Liisa Buelens & Tijs D'Hulster
12.00-12.30	Between do-support and tun-periphrasis: the case of finite verb doubling in Karrharde North Frisian Jarich Hoekstra	Degrees of adverbialization: a cross-linguistic corpus study of [FAR FROM X] constructions Hendrik De Smet, Muriel Norde, Kristel Van Goethem & Gudrun Vanderbauwhede

12.30-13.30	Lunch (Highfield House Cloisters)
	Highfield House (A01) Chair: Matthias Hüning	Highfield House (A02) Chair: Fred Weerman
13.30-14.00	The evolution of the Afrikaans hê perfect Adri Breed	Linguistic attitudes in the Dutch-German border area: a comparison of Vreden (D) and Winterswijk (NL) Gunther De Vogelaer
14.00-14.30	The 'human' impersonal pronoun in Afrikaans vs. European West Germanic Daniel Van Olmen, Adri Breed & Ben Verhoeven	Teaching Dutch, German and English as pluricentric languages Truus de Wilde & Ulrike Vogl
14.30-15.00	The grammaticalisation of the gaan + infinitive future in spoken Dutch and Flemish Carol Fehringer	Pronoun processing in L2 Dutch by German adult speakers Hendrikje Ziemann & Esther Ruigendijk
15.00-15.30	Coffee (Highfield House Cloisters)
	Highfield House (A01) Chair: Johan Van der Auwera	Highfield House (A02)
15.30-16.00	On the choice of comparative markers in Dutch and German: a cyclic approach Helen de Hoop, Lukas Reinartz & Hugo de Vos	Teaching forum: the Germanic Sandwich classroom Roel Vismans with Barbara Schlücker and Gunther De Vogelaer
16.00-16.30	The rise of the positive polar moeten Marlijn Meijer
16.30-17.00	On the distribution and the acquisition of Germanic NEEDs: German between Dutch and English Jing Lin
19.00	Conference dinner (Trent Building, Council Room)

Saturday 25 April

10.00-10.30	Coffee (Highfield House Cloisters)
	Highfield House (A01) Chair: Freek Van de Velde	Highfield House (A02) Chair: Gunther De Vogelaer
10.30-11.00	En- versus Pro-cliticisation: synchronic and diachronic evidence from Dutch Johanneke Sytsema & Aditi Lahiri	How different is Nick Clegg in Dutch? Suzie Holdsworth
11.00-11.30	Language acquisition and language change: the case of verb clusters Caitlin Meyer & Fred Weerman	On culture-specific items in the Dutch and English translations of 'Dukla' and 'House of day, house of night'. A comparative analysis Katarzyna Tryczyńska
11.30-12.00	Word order change in Germanic verbal clusters Jelke Bloem, Arjen Versloot & Fred Weerman	Asynchronicity Meets the Sandwich: Dutch V1-Conditionals Between German and English Torsten Leuschner
12.00-13.00	Lunch (Highfield House Cloisters)
	Highfield House (A01) Chair: Kristel Van Goethem	Highfield House (A02) Chair: Richard Jason Whitt
13.00-13.30	Proper noun compounding in West-Germanic. A contrastive view Barbara Schlücker	Long distance dependencies in the Germanic sandwich Jack Hoeksema & Ankelien Schippers
13.30-14.00	Complex prepositions in English, German and Dutch: similarities and differences Matthias Hüning & Anatol Stefanowitsch	Mirative extensions of progressive constructions Lynn Anthonissen, Astrid De Wit & Tanja Mortelmans
14.00-14.30	Pluralbildung von Fremdwörtern im Niederländischen und Deutschen Franziska Pfaff	The development of evidential meanings in Dutch, English and Swedish verbs of appearance Marjolein Poortvliet

14.30-15.30

Discussion / Conclusion (with coffee) (Highfield House A01)

25.3.15