

A30 Lecture Theatre, Lakeside Arts Centre

Please use Djanogly Recital Hall entrance No. 3 (blue on map)

University Park, Nottingham, NG7 2RD

SAT NAV: Please do not try to find us by postcode, as this will only take you to University Park, not to Lakeside directly. When entering our address into a Sat Nav, please enter east drive nottingham.

How to get here

Directions from M1 north

To find us take Junction 26 off M1 and follow signs towards Nottingham City Centre. You will come to a major ring road junction, turn right and follow A6514 (there will be signs towards QMC and the University) heading towards the A52 Derby/Grantham. Ignore the A52 slip road to Derby, keep going on the A52 through an underpass immediately after which take left lane and leave A52 on slip road leading to roundabout. Take right turn at roundabout towards Beeston. You should now be on the A6005 University Boulevard. Get into the right lane and at first set of traffic lights turn right into University Park.

On entering University Park you'll see the Djanogly Art Gallery (No. 1 on the map) immediately on your right, and then the D H Lawrence Pavilion (large white building with green roof) which houses the Djanogly Theatre next to the lake on your left. Take the second left turn into the free public car park. If it's full please turn right instead into Science Road where there is a range of car parking off to the right and left all of which is available to visitors in the evening only.

Directions from M1 south

Leave M1 at Junction 25 and follow Nottingham City Centre signs on A52. At the third roundabout get into the right lane and turn right into the A6404 Woodside Road.

You will pass the West Entrance to the University, but continue in the left lane along University Boulevard A6005 turning left at the traffic lights into University Park.

On entering University Park you will immediately see the Djanogly Art Gallery (No. 1 on the map) on your right and then the D H Lawrence Pavilion (large white building with green roof) which houses the Djanogly Theatre next to the lake on your left. Take the second left turn into the Lakeside car park. There is parking to the right and left of this road which is available to visitors in the evening only.

BUSES

Regular bus services operate between Broadmarsh Bus Station in the city centre and the South Entrance of the University (along Derby Road). The Trent Barton Indigo bus runs to and from Long Eaton past the South Entrance every 7-8 minutes in the daytime and slightly less frequently at night. The Nottingham City Transport bus service, number 13 and 14 from Beast Market Hill in Market Square (along Castle Boulevard) every 15 minutes in the daytime. Number 14 daytime only. NCT number 34 from city centre onto University Campus (stops opposite main Lakeside car park) every 10 minutes - daytime and term time only. Please call Nottingham City Transport on 0115 950 6070 or Traveline on 0871 200 22 33 for more information and other buses from your area.

See www.triptimes.co.uk for a journey planner.

CAR PARKING

There are two free car parks directly outside the Lakeside D H Lawrence Pavilion for visitors to Lakeside and Highfields Park. There are pay and display car parks also available around the university campus. These are free during evenings and weekends.

Disabled Parking

There are designated spaces located close to Lakeside's venues. For the Djanogly Art Gallery and Recital Hall please use the spaces on East Drive (in front of those buildings). For the Djanogly Theatre or other venues located inside the DH Lawrence Pavilion there are 2 spaces in the free car park next to the Pavilion. An additional 9 spaces are next to the lake (past the gatehouse, then first left off East Drive towards the D H Lawrence Pavilion).

More information on the parking on the campus is on the University's website at www.nottingham.ac.uk/estates/security/carparking.aspx

Lakeside Venues

