

Nottingham Good Food Festival

NOTTINGHAM
GOOD FOOD

FESTIVAL

June - October 2019

NGFP

Coordinated by NGFP. Key sponsor University of
Nottingham Future Food
Beacon

University of Nottingham
Future Food

The Prince's
Responsible
Business Network

Produced by NGFP in consultation with partners, sponsored by University of Nottingham Future Food Beacon

Programme of Events June - Oct 2019

---

Sunday 9th June 1-4pm

Neighbourhood Food Growing Festival Nottingham Arboretum

Nottingham's first neighbourhood first festival featured a range of workshops, talks and community growing spaces. Aim was to engage public and show what they can grow and to showcase local food growing spaces. Programme included talks and workshops. Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

Thursday June 20th Future Food Symposium Nottingham Business School, Jubilee Campus

The Future of Food Surplus, food waste and new models of social eating featuring NGFP on panel. Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

Date TBC July - Funky

Foraging! Venue TBC

Getting into urban foraging will transform your life! A workshop on identifying common plants around the city which can be transformed into delicious, seasonal food and drinks easily made at home. Zero waste, all the taste! Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

Friday July 5th GROW IT! St

Stephen's Primary School, Sneinton

Nelsons solicitors, BITC and NGFP will visit pupils at St Stephen's C of E Primary school to deliver salad growing kits for the pupils to set up at home and to talk about why growing healthy food is great!

Programme of Events June - Oct 2019

---

Wednesday July 10th The Social Grocer Bestop kitchen, Bestwood Community Church

The Social Grocer. This event will consult people running social eating spaces over a tasty seasonal lunch to find out their views on a proposed pilot to provide their customers with low cost fresh fruit and veg - and recipes Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

Date TBC July Carbon Neutral Kitchen Venue TBC

This event will launch Carbon Neutral Kitchen - an ambitious new campaign designed for Nottingham's vibrant indie food scene. CNK will showcase local food businesses which have cost effectively transformed their carbon footprint, slashed food waste, focused on shortening supply chains and bagged loyal, returning customers into the bargain.

NGFP is working in partnership with the City Council, Robin Hood Energy, BITC and the University of Nottingham's Future Food Beacon. Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

Sunday August 4th Veg Power! Sneinton Plaza & Sneinton Square

Veg Power! Following on from last summer's sensational first ever healthy food festival for children the event is back this year even bigger and better. Join workshops, hear engaging talks, go sport crazy, eat fantastic fresh food and so much more. The event returns by popular demand. Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

The Prince's Responsible Business Network

Programme of Events June - Oct 2019

---

Saturday August 10th Party in the Park, Nottingham Hospice, Woodborough Park

Nottingham Hospice host's fundraising event for families with a host of activities including NGFP's pop up potting shed that will provide children with all the soil, pots and seeds they need to take home their own mini salad garden. NGFP will also show veg that can be regrown. Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

Thursday August 16th IMMERSED: Artists, Activists, Academics
Backlit Studio, Sneinton

IMMERSED will bring together artists, academics, food activists and young people to explore how we can communicate a 2050 vision of Nottingham's built environment immersed in an edible urban landscape. Good Living Citizen's Survey consultation point.

Thursday October 3rd URBAN GREENING PART 1: Launch of Good Living Guide Urban Room

Following on from the Urban Greening workshop in February, this second event will share how the findings from the World Cafe session are being taken forward and incorporated at a strategic level. Informed by the responses of the attendees a survey was developed to capture the appetite of citizens and stakeholders for embedding local food to support wellbeing in the forthcoming Good Living Design Guide. The results of the summer long consultation will be revealed and the Good Living Design guide launched.

The Prince's Responsible Business Network

Programme of Events June - Oct 2019

---

Tuesday October 15th URBAN

GREENING 2 Venue TBC

Second Urban Greening event that examines the journey from the urban greening event in February which sparked the summer long Good Design Citizen's survey. The event will review key projects being coordinated by Nottingham Good Food Partnership that address urban greening and further which will throw open the floor to citizens to comment - and design new urban greening projects.

Sunday October 27th Hockley

Hustle Various Venues Hockley

Hockley's biggest music weekend of the year partners up with NGFP to put green into the music scene. Expect pop up allotments, hack spaces and huge projections that will transform streets into fields of wheat and orchards!

The Prince's Responsible Business Network