

Reporter Activity!

You work for the University of Nottingham Impact Student Magazine, as a journalist, and you need to interview someone who went to university to discover their experience of it and write an article!

- ✓ Before you start, you will need to find someone who went to university! (Tip – your Teacher could be a good one to ask!)
- ✓ Then, you need to plan what questions you are going to ask them. Here are some example questions below (Tip - there are some question ideas in the coloured boxes to help you):

How long was your course?

Where did you live at university?

Did you make friends at university?

What age did you go to university?

Your questions:

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

4) _____

5) _____

6) _____

7) _____

8) _____

What was your favourite part of university?

Why did you choose to go where you did?

Did you join any sports clubs or societies at university?

A template for a spiral-bound notebook. It features a black spiral binding at the top. The notebook has a black outer cover and a white inner page. The page is ruled with horizontal blue lines. The notebook is shown at a slight angle, with the cover visible on the left and bottom edges.

Article title

Picture of person you interviewed

Introduction to article (what is it about?)

The main part of your article – this where you can go into detail about the person you interviewed and their experience of university

The conclusion – this paragraph can sum up what your article was about. Would you recommend going to university based on what the person who you interviewed said?
