

9th Enquire Conference 'Inequalities and Social Research' Programme Outline 25th of February 2017

@enquirenottm, #enquireinequalities

Time	Place	Activity
9:00	Atrium	Registration & Coffee
9:30	Room A1	Introduction & Plenary Session 1	Welcome and Introduction. Andrew Yip, University of Nottingham Class and gender: Reflections on living, studying and researching social inequalities. Tracey Warren, University of Nottingham. Q&A
10:45	Atrium	Break & Coffee
11:00	Room A1 (Session 1) Room A2 (Session 2) Room A11 (Session 3)	Morning Sessions	1: Young lives Drinking Carling Out of Stella Glasses: Youth, class and place in the missing middle. Katy McEwan, Teesside University Youth, Precarity and Class: Unequal Employment in the Great Recession. Stefanie Williamson, University of Nottingham Insecurity, Inequalities and Intersectionality: Exploring how young people are made vulnerable to suffering through austerity. Louise Laverty, University of Liverpool Chair: Ruth Read	2: 'Race', ethnicity & citizenship (Un)equally yoked? Mixed status relationships and the agency of undocumented immigrants. Jonathan Leif Basilio, University of Manchester Tackling Social Inequalities in Diaspora through Constructivist-Sikh-Identity and its Representation in Postcolonial Fiction in English. Harjinder Majhail, University of Derby Experiences of Social Mobility of Mapuche Indigenous People in Chile. Denisse Sepúlveda Sánchez, University of Manchester Chair: Jack Tomlin	3: Intersectionality & multiple inequalities An Intersectional Feminist Approach to Climate Change Politics. Joanna Wilson, University of Manchester Olive Morris and Squatting: A Reconsideration of Housing Inequality. Milo Bettocchi, University of Nottingham Social Inequality as Contributing Factor Towards Disparity in Palliative Care Provision. Abid Ali, University of Nottingham. Chair: Ed Wright

12:00	Atrium	Break
12:15	Room A1	Plenary Session 2	Poverty, inequality and the new politics of class. Tracy Shildrick, University of Leeds Q&A
13:15	Atrium	Lunch
14:00	Room A1 (Session 4) Room A2 (Session 5) Room A11 (Session 6)	Afternoon Sessions	4: Space, Place and Communities Understanding City Stakeholders' Views About Sustainability and Economic Inequality in Nottingham (UK) and Stuttgart (Germany). Hannah Keding, University of Nottingham Placing Justice in the Community in an age of 'Social Polarisation'. Susie Atherton, Keele University Fire, Inequality and Community Engagement. Chris Hastie, Coventry University Chair: Judit Varga	5: Gendered experiences Part-Time Women Teachers and Their Career Progression: A Life History Approach Suzanne Brown, University of Sheffield Cultural Differences or Economic Inequalities: Are British Ethnic Minority Women Really Disadvantaged? Senhu Wang, University of Cambridge The Postfeminist Reconciliation Challenge: Representations and Lived Experiences of Maternal Femininities on Mumsnet.com. Yvonne Ehrstein, City, University of London Chair: Ashley Lewis	6: Class, representation and power Social Class, Social Networking and Representation. Gillian Mooney, University of Leeds The British Monarchy, Representation, and the Reproduction of Class Power. Laura Clancy, University of Lancaster Bourgeois and Petit-Bourgeois Relationships to Academic Disciplines: The Example of German Economics Students. Tim Winzler, University of Glasgow Locating Inequality in the Experience of Charity Boxing. Ed Wright, University of Nottingham Chair: James Pattison

15:20	Atrium	Break & Coffee
15:40	Room A1	Plenary Session 3	Young people, poverty and place: Re-scripting social class stigma in an age of austerity. Anoop Nayak, Newcastle University Q&A
16:40	Room A1	Close	Close of event. Enquire Conference Team.
17:00	The Orchard Hotel	Drinks	