

Inclusive Climbing Ambassador Role Profile

August 2021

Overview

To support and develop the weekly inclusive climbing sessions at David Ross Sports Village during the 2021/22 academic year.

Key responsibilities

- Promoting the inclusive sessions through social media channels and networks, including sourcing information for the inclusive climbing Facebook page;
- Developing links with the Disability Sport Ambassador, Champions and Disabled Students Network;
- Updating and involving the University Climbing Club where possible/required;
- Supporting and working with disabled members on the climbing and bouldering wall;
- Working with the Climbing Wall Manager to develop the sessions – ensuring retention and growth in the number of participants;
- Log volunteer hours on the Volunteer Kinetic website.

Role Requirements

- Approachability and willingness to support others;
- Needs to be a passionate climber;
- Every Sunday from 3-5pm, during term time;
- Engage Inclusive Sports Day, Wednesday 6th October from 2 – 5pm (TBC),
- Other events for disabled members and participants as required;
- Training as agreed with the Climbing Wall Manager and Disability Sport Officer.

Benefits

- Mentoring from the UoN Climbing Wall team and Disability Sport Officer;
- Training and development opportunities where required;
- UoN Sport kit;
- Developing CV enhancing skills, including leadership, communication and problem solving;
- Enhancing the climbing experience for disabled students at UoN;
- Rewards for logging hours through Volunteer Kinetic;
- Involvement in UoNSport ambassador socials.

Other information

- Reporting in to the Climbing Wall Manager and Disability Sport Officer;
- Review at the end of the academic year;
- Reference to be provided on request;
- Sunday sessions will be led by a qualified climbing instructor.

Expressions of Interest

- Please email a covering letter expressing your interest, including details of your relevant experience and knowledge to the Disability Sport Officer (DSO):
hannah.webber@nottingham.ac.uk
- Deadline: 7th September 2021
- If you require any further information please email the DSO or our Climbing Wall Manager:
mike.smith@nottingham.ac.uk