

The Memorial Scholarship

Theology & Religious Studies 2019-20

Guidance Notes

The Memorial Scholarship is awarded to academically talented applicants (as assessed by their School). A maximum of £1,250 is available to award between successful applicants in each academic year.

Eligibility is restricted to:

- Postgraduate research students, full-time or part-time, holding an offer to study or already admitted to the MRes in Theology/Religious Studies or PhD in Theology/Religious Studies and undertaking research in Hebrew Bible.

Who:

- are considered academically talented by their School.
- are/will be registered and attending the University of Nottingham (UK Campus)

Additional factors taken into consideration:

- difficulties/challenges which you have faced or expect to have to overcome as you work towards your degree (e.g. Ill health, a disability).
- Additional responsibilities or commitments you have (e.g. Having to care for a family member, Voluntary/Charity work).

As this is a competitive scholarship we would encourage you to highlight any additional factors you wish to be taken into consideration in your answer to question 6 on the application form. Completed applications should be submitted to the Funding and Financial Support Team, by scanning and emailing them to bursaries@nottingham.ac.uk, by 30th August 2019.

Applications will be passed to your School for assessment and any additional factors you have included will be taken into consideration. You will receive email notification of the outcome of your application within four working weeks of the closing date.

Please note, your University email account will be used to contact you in the event of any queries relating to your application.
