General activities

9am to 12pm Registration and optional general activities

General activities are optional. They provide a great opportunity to explore University Park Campus, view catered and self-catered accommodation, and take a tour of Nottingham city centre.

You'll need tickets for general activities. You will be able to collect tickets from your registration venue when you arrive on the day.

Only one guest may be able to accompany you for general activities, but there are plenty of places to explore or get a drink if you have brought anyone else with you.

Full timetable available at nottingham.ac.uk/offerholders

Subject-specific activities

12:15pm Arrival and light lunch with the school
Please make your way to the Humanities Building (Building number 55 on University Park map).
Join us for a complimentary light buffet lunch where current students and academic staff will be available to chat with you about our courses and study opportunities.

1.15pm Welcome and introduction to the Department of Classics and Archaeology
Please make your way to room A03 in the Humanities Building (building 55 on University Park campus map) to hear more about what it is like to study in the Department of Classics and Archaeology.

1.45pm Taster seminar
Experience an insight into studying Classics and Archaeology at Nottingham with our Mini Taster Seminar. Previous taster sessions have explored: The colour purple in ancient history and archaeology; A Latin poem about toothpaste by Apuleius; Nestor’s cup, Homer and material culture; Inscriptions and Roman women. (Humanities A03)

2.15pm Refreshments with academic staff and students
Enjoy refreshments with staff and students. This is a good opportunity to ask any questions you may still have about the course or the University in general. The Digital Transformations Hub team will also be on hand to demonstrate some of the digital facilities available for Humanities students.
(Humanities Atrium)

2.45pm Joint honours information
Your opportunity to find out more about joint honours degrees and the other half of your chosen course. This might involve a visit to the other department or a talk from a member of staff with expertise in that area. (Humanities A03)

3.15pm Optional tours
Students will be available to take you on tours of the Digital Transformations Hub and the Archaeology labs. This is a great opportunity to explore our facilities.

General activities

3.45pm Optional campus tour
For final campus tours, please return to your registration venue.
