Wednesday 4 March 2020

Courses: History V100; Ancient history and History V117; History and History of Art VV31; Archaeology and History VV14; History and Contemporary Chinese Studies VT11

Your registration venue is Great Hall, Trent Building (building 11 on the University Park Campus map)

General activities

9am to 12pm  Registration and optional general activities

General activities are optional. They provide a great opportunity to explore University Park Campus, view catered and self-catered accommodation, and take a tour of Nottingham city centre.

You'll need tickets for general activities. You will be able to collect tickets from your registration venue when you arrive on the day.

Only one guest may be able to accompany you for general activities, but there are plenty of places to explore or get a drink if you have brought anyone else with you.

Full timetable available at nottingham.ac.uk/offerholders

Subject-specific activities

1.15pm  Welcome and introduction to the Department of History

Please make your way to room B62 in the Law and Social Sciences Building (building 7 on University Park campus map) to hear more about what it is like to study in the Department of History.

1.45pm  Followed by taster lecture

Experience an insight into studying History at Nottingham with our mini taster lecture 'Gender and Sexuality in India under the Raj' delivered by Dr Onni Gust from the Department of History. (B62 in Law and Social Sciences Building)
