Your day at the School of Cultures, Languages and Area Studies

Wednesday 4 March

Liberal Arts – Y002

Your registration venue is the Great Hall, Trent Building.

General activities

9am to 12pm

Registration and optional general activities

General activities are optional. They provide a great opportunity to explore University Park Campus, view catered and self-catered accommodation, and take a tour of Nottingham city centre.

You’ll need tickets for general activities. You will be able to collect tickets from your registration venue when you arrive on the day.

Only one guest may be able to accompany you for general activities, but there are plenty of places to explore or get a drink if you have brought anyone else with you.

Full timetable available at nottingham.ac.uk/offerholders

Subject-specific activities

12.15pm Arrival and lunch within the school

Please make your way to the ground floor registration desk in the Teaching and Learning building (building 62 on University Park Campus map) on arrival, where you will be provided with a programme of events for the afternoon session specific to your course. Then join us for a complimentary buffet lunch where current students and academic staff will be available to chat with you about our courses and study opportunities.

1pm School welcome

You will be directed to the A03 lecture theatre where the afternoon programme begins. Our Head of School, Professor Nicola McLelland, will deliver a welcome talk before you head to your subject specific activities.

1.15pm Liberal Arts activities

Your afternoon programme is structured into 3 sections. In our first period, we will talk about how you can make choices in Liberal Arts. This is an opportunity to speak to a personal tutor about the decisions you might make regarding the subjects you want to study and how you shape your Liberal Arts degree.

Our second session will be a sample seminar about what you can expect from the core modules you will study. Liberal Arts is about interdisciplinary study and we will use this session to demonstrate the importance of thinking differently.

In our final session, we will have a Q&A session with our students so you can ask questions about life in Nottingham, specific modules, timetables, study abroad and the experiences gained on the programme.
We will have a refreshment break between sessions in the afternoon where you can grab a hot drink and chat informally to academic staff and current students and ask any questions.

Our student ambassadors will escort you between venues. School activities will finish at 3.30pm.
